

How Long Have You Worn Those Glasses?

Here is an important question for you. Many people continue the use of glasses long after they have ceased to benefit. It's easy and wise to have an accurate examination of your eyes once every two years or oftener, as it should be done.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS

AT THE ORPHEUM

In "The Black Flag," which is to be tonight's bill at the Orpheum, the people of Honolulu will have the opportunity of witnessing one of the most stirring dramas offered here all season. The play has been a favorite for a number of years both in England and America. Its story concerns two brothers, one a scoundrel, the other one of nature's noblemen who are involved in a struggle for love and honor. The scoundrel's one success in getting his brother imprisoned for a crime which he himself has committed. One of the great acts of the play portrays the hero's escape from Portland prison. The comedy is particularly amusing there being laughter enough to suit everyone. "The Black Flag" is to be presented tonight, tomorrow night and tomorrow afternoon.

Beginning Monday night and continuing for three nights and the Wednesday matinee, "Other People's Money" is to be played. This is a very funny farce, in which the late Henry Le Roy is starring at the time of his death. Monday night's performance will be for the benefit of Oahu Canton of the Odd Fellows' and tickets for it may be obtained either from the Odd Fellows themselves or at the box office.

"The Great Conspiracy," which is to be billed at the end of next week, is to be followed by "The Squaw Man."

IN SONG AND STORY.

The attractions of Halewa are manifold and they have been written up by celebrated literatures and sung by the poets. Golfers praise the links because of their manifold advantages over all other links in the country and any gourmet will tell you that the cuisine of the hotel is the best west of Chicago. If you are a tourist here and want to enjoy something better than anything you have ever tried, go down on the Limited on Sunday and put in the day. St. Clair Bldg., the manager, will entertain you.

SAYS TAYLOR ASKED THE CONTINUANCE

CATHART REPLIES TO CHARGES REGARDING THE LEE LET BATTERY CASE.

"The Lee Let battery case was continued at the personal request of Chief of Detectives Taylor, after I had refused to allow a continuance without such a request," said County Attorney John W. Cathart this morning. Cathart was discussing the charge made this morning that he appeared to want to let the case drag along until the public forgot it, and he could quietly make his escape.

"The case was passed for two terms, when the evidence was new and in shape for trial, by the Attorney General's Department, before it was placed in my hands at all," continued Cathart. "I don't know why, but presumably of course that there were reasons. After the case came into my hands it was called in the regular order of calendar business, and I was prepared to take it up in due order. Frank Thompson, counsel for the defense, was compelled to go to the Coast and asked me to allow a continuance, and as a personal courtesy I made no objection. The court would probably have granted him time anyhow."

"When next the case came up, Thompson again wanted a continuance. His partner was away, and he again asked me to consent. I refused. He said that Chief of Detectives Taylor would agree to a postponement. I then told him that I would not take even that, but that if Taylor came to me and asked as a personal matter that there be a postponement, I would consent. At Thompson's request, as I understand it, Taylor did so and therefore the case was passed. I so informed Mr. Thompson."

Attorney Thompson, who arrived during Cathart's statement, corroborated Cathart's statement of refusing to a continuance unless Taylor not merely consented, but personally requested, that there be one.

"As a matter of fact the case is one among many which I am disposed to think I should not have taken charge of at all," said the County Attorney. "They are cases from Attorney General Peters' time some of them, and were postponed over and over again. On investigating I often find the evidence gone, or inadequate in my opinion, and have to nolle pros. As for this Lee Let case, I hadn't gone into it, because it was not near enough in order. I don't know any of these Chinamen or anything about the case and shall not, until the time comes for me to personally investigate and prepare the case."

The Lee Let case is a story of an offer of $1400 per week said to have been made to the Chief of Detectives for protection to gamblers. Taylor secured $50 from Lee, during an interview arranged to discuss the alleged offer, and at once turned it over as evidence at the police station, arresting Lee on a charge of attempted bribery. An indictment was found by the grand jury under Attorney General Peters, but there has been no proceeding in the case since except continuance.

SYMPHONY SOCIETY TO GIVE CONCERT

The Symphony Society Orchestra will give a concert on the evening of February eighth, at 8 o'clock, in Bishop's Hall, Punahou College.

The Society has always been very popular with music-lovers, and this evening of music promises to increase their popularity. The program has been very carefully arranged with a view to artistic appreciation as well as to popular taste, and the members of the Society have been faithful in their attendance of rehearsals.

In addition to the instrumental selections, there will be several numbers by a trained chorus of selected voices, under the leadership of Mr. Bode. Bishop Hall has a good seating capacity, but the managers expect to fill every seat, as the tickets are selling rapidly. The fine acoustic properties of the hall make it an especially desirable place for such an entertainment.

Regular admission is one dollar, but special rates will be made to school children. Tickets may be purchased at Wall, Nichols Co., or from any member of the Society.

Reserved seats may be selected on Monday at Wall, Nichols Co., in exchange for regular tickets, and without extra charge.

Everyone connected with the affair is enthusiastic over the prospects, and the occasion promises to be a big success in a musical and financial way.

SHERIFF A PEACH

DEPUTY SHERIFF KOKAULA GOT TO REPORT ON INVESTIGATION A MURDER.

HILA, Jan. 25.—The Tribune says: Unless all signs go for warrant, a most brutal murder was committed in this County of Hawaii on the night of Saturday, 14th inst., and up to the present not the slightest attempt has been made towards arresting the person or persons connected with the crime.

It may be said in the subject that Sheriff Keonani is in no sense to blame for this, inasmuch as by his inquiries, he had never received any report of the crime.

A Japanese, well known to travelers, kept the half-way house between the volcano and Pahaia. He was known as "Weda" or "Uda." On Saturday, 14th inst., he went up to Wood Valley and it is understood that he was drinking there to a considerable extent. He left the Japanese camp on horseback and that is all that is known of him until the morning of Sunday, 15th.

Deputy Sheriff Kekaula was notified but he did not put in an appearance until 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon. He wished to deputize the local policeman to act as coroner but Dr. W. A. Schwallie of Pahaia, who had been called to examine the body, insisted upon the attendance of the deputy sheriff.

It is stated the police rather regarded a verdict of accidental death as the proper sort of a finding but Dr. Schwallie went thoroughly into the facts with the result that a verdict was finally returned bringing the charge of murder against "some person or persons unknown."

"I am at a loss to know what the Deputy Sheriff over in Kaua was drinking about," said Sheriff Keonani to the Tribune yesterday. "He never informed me of the murder and I know nothing of it until told by the Tribune. Of course the Deputy Sheriff there is elected by the people—I was appointed things would be different."

THE CHICKENS CAME VERY HIGH

CHINESE THIEVES GOT A YEAR EACH INSTEAD OF TOOTHACHE KONOHI KAUKAU.

Acting on the words of the song "I'd go a stealing for you, chicken stealing for you, cause I've got a creeping feeling for you," was the cause of Chen Tack and Tai Sung getting one year each for stealing some young fowls from a Japanese, which they had intended to have for their Konohe celebrations tomorrow.

These two unfortunates were both found guilty this morning in Police court, and given the above sentences. Han Sam one of their pals was discharged this morning as no evidence was brought against him.

Five drunks were on the calendar this morning and all pleaded guilty. Four were fined $3 and costs each, while the other one saw fit to forfeit his $5 bail.

Okimura a Japanese hack driver was fined $5 and costs for leaving his horse untied on Queen street. F. K. Seong an employee of Leo Quai on Fort street was found guilty of selling liquor without a license, and was fined $150 and costs. Notice of appeal was immediately entered by his lawyer.

BIG CHECK FOR YACHT

LARGEST DONATION YET RECEIVED COMES FROM GEORGE WILCOX OF KAUAI.

The largest individual donation received so far for the "Hawaii" was received yesterday by the committee from George Wilcox of Kauai who sent his personal check for $1,000.

In his letter Mr. Wilcox expressed a desire that the interior of the yacht be done entirely in kua, and the committee would like to hear from any one who has some seasoned kua for sale, as they intend to buy it with the money that Mr. Wilcox so generously donated.

PREPARATIONS FOR KONOHI

CONVULS WILL GIVE RECEPTION AND VARIOUS SOCIETIES WILL KEEP OPEN HOUSE.

The different Chinese Societies in town are making great plans for the reception of their guests tomorrow, and will receive all day with ceremonies fitting to the celebration of Chinese New Year.

There will be no parade tomorrow with the dragon as in years gone by, but other forms of celebration will take its place.

The Chinese Consul will give a reception on Sunday at the Consulate, which will be the most elaborate one ever given in Hawaii.

Shortly after midnight tonight the fire works and fire crackers which play a great part in the New Year's celebrations will commence to be set off, and during the early morning hours and all day the Oriental quarter of town will be the scene of holiday crowds, and the noises that go with the fitting celebration of Chinese New Year.

The following societies will keep open house tomorrow for their friends: United Chinese Society, King street between Smith and Nuanua streets; Koi On Fui Kong Association, Kukui street between Liliha and River streets; Wing Sing Sha Society, River street near King; See Yip Society, King street near Liliha.

MAKE TROUBLE IN TAX OFFICE

mer unpleasantness. Then the matter gets to the ears of Treasurer A. J. Campbell, through whom the appointment of the Tax Office head is made, and hence the investigation.

Mr. Holt claims that he did pay Harbottle commissions twice, but did so through error, and afterwards corrected it by withholding commissions on enough other collections of Harbottle to make up the amount he had overpaid. The error was made through an item of $400 collected on November 5th being included in Harbottle's collections for October. The commission was figured out including this amount, and when again in December the November collections were figured up this same item was inadvertently included. Shortly after this the error was discovered and commissions withheld sufficient to make good the amount. Collector Holt and a number of his deputies have been on the carpet before Secretary Mott-Smith several times, and the data on the matter is now in his hands, but as yet no report has been made.

All of the foregoing is the apparent situation, with the causes and consequences, but it is no secret that there is much under the surface which has not yet come to light. Whether it will or not before the matter is cleared up, remains to be seen. There has been for a long time a good deal of opposition on the part of a portion of the force of the Tax Office which has been inimical to Holt, with the result that there has been two factions in the office—one with and the other against the collector. It is also reported that one of the deputies in the office has had his eye on Holt's job and is the chief cause of the trouble; also that he has the ear of Treasurer Campbell and hopes through his offices to get himself elevated.

Mr. Holt has held his present position since J. W. Pratt left the office to take the Commissionership of the Public Lands, and in all has been connected with the office for the past twelve or thirteen years. He is generally well liked throughout the Territory, and until this time there has never been any trouble of serious character since he has been in charge. As a result, the present mixup, will be watched by everybody with unusual interest.

ANOTHER DEFI

EDITOR STAR:—In your issue of January 20, 1908, you suggest that the Attorney General look into the treatment of lepers by Dr. Atcherley and Mr. Wallace. As a Hawaiian I shall be very glad that your suggestion shall be carried out for it will then give the remedy a good chance for a fair test and there will be no more humbugging and calling names on the part of your paper and your disappointed committee of ten and the Board of Health.

I am, sir, yours respectfully,

MARY H. ATCHERLEY.
